Tax refund

If your tax assessment indicates that you have paid too much tax, the money will be transferred to account * * 12345

If you would like your tax refund to be paid into an account other than the suggested account or if you would prefer to receive a payment card, you must tell the Tax Administration. Read more at skatteetaten.no /endrekonto

You have received the tax for self-employees persons. This tax return MUST be submitted electronically.

When will my tax assessment notice arrive? You will not receive your tax assessment notice any earlier than August or any later than October. If we have received information on tax that has been paid/deducted or young people's housing savings (BSU), this information will be shown at the top of the page.

According to our records, you received payments to self-employed persons, etc. amounting to NOK 175 000 in 2020. All business income earned in 2020 must be entered in the income statement (RF-1175) under items 3000 - 3900 or under sales income in the Business Tax Return.

Additional advance tax paid after 1 February 2021 will not be included in the tax calculation, but will be credited in your tax assessment. If you wish to avoid paying interest on any underpaid tax, you must pay additional advance tax by 31 May 2021. This deadline applies if you have been granted an extension to the deadline for submitting your tax return.

You must use the following information when paying:

Kontonr: 6345 06 24804
Navn: Skatteetaten - skatteinnkreving
KID - nr: yyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyy
IBAN : NO42 6345 0624 804
SWIFT/BIC: NDEANOKK

This is a tax return for self-employed persons

- You must submit the tax return and you must submit it electronically via altinn.no
- You cannot make use of the submission exemption arrangement.
- You risk having your wealth and income determined through a discretionary assessment and being imposed an enforcement fine if you do not submit the tax return or if you submit it on paper.
- For new self-employed persons, see in particular skatteetaten.no/naering

How do I check my tax return?

- Check the information and enter any information that is missing.
- For guides to the individual items, see skatteetaten.no/finnpost
- For guidance on how to add or alter a post, visit skatteetaten.no
- The "Business Tax Return" is a simpler submission service for businesses with straightforward tax affairs. Read more about who can use the Business Tax Return at skatteetaten.no/enkeloppgave
- If you have a small business with operating revenue not exceeding NOK 50 000, you can opt not to submit an income statement; see skatteetaten.no/enkeloppgave
- The deadline for submitting the tax return is 31 May.

New for this year

- Rates for bracket tax have been changed, see skatteetaten.no/en/rates/bracket-tax.
- The NRK broadcasting licence has been abolished and is financed by the state. This means that the personal allowance has been reduced from NOK 56,550 to NOK 51,300.
- Travel deductions are not pre-filled in your tax return for the 2020 income year. You must enter information for the calculation of travel deductions yourself under item 3.2.8.
- The tax liability and right to deductions for maintenance payments from/to former spouses has been abolished. Any maintenance payments you are owed and maintenance payments you owe must still be included as wealth and debt under item 4.1.6 and/or item 4.8.1.
- The temporary scheme for compensation subsidies from NAV to self-employed persons and freelancers will grant subsidies that compensate for loss of personal income. The subsidy will be taxable income.
