

This form shall ONLY be used to report a change of POSTAL address in Norway or abroad.

This includes reporting a new/amended postal address or deleting an existing postal address that is registered at the National Register. The change can also be a postal address abroad. You must send/hand in this form to a tax office in Norway.

If you are moving house you must use a different form. For moves within Norway you can use an electronic form (English version available) on taxnorway.no or skatteetaten.no.

A What type of change is this?

- I/we wish to register a new postal address. Please continue to box B.
- I/we wish to delete the existing postal address, and only use the residential address that is registered with the National Register. Please continue to box C.

B What is the new postal address?

Address (please write clearly)

Country

Country code

C Who does the new postal address apply to?

In this form, you can only change the postal address for you personally, and people in the household.

Name (surname, given name and middle name (if any))

National identity number/D-number

1.

2.

3.

4.

D What type of identification are you enclosing?

I/we enclose a:

- copy of passport
- copy of driving licence
- copy of another valid ID card

The person(s) signing this form (See box F) must enclose a copy of valid identification. Valid identification is an ID card showing date of birth, name, signature and a photograph. Even if some bank cards meet these requirements, we recommend you to enclose a different type of ID as bank cards contain sensitive information.

E How can the tax office contact you?

E-mail address

Daytime telephone number

F Date and signature

If the change of postal address applies to the entire household, one signature and a copy of identification for the person signing are sufficient. However, if you have shared parental responsibility for a child under the age of 18, the parent who the child is registered as living with at the National Register must sign the form and enclose a copy of valid identification. If you wish to amend a postal address on behalf of a person you have been appointed as a guardian for, you must document your (provisional) guardian status. In the case you represent the estate of a deceased person, a certificate of probate and any power of attorney must be enclosed.
